

The Federal Party of Australia
(FPA)

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

– Endorsed Federal Candidate –

* A starting Parliamentary Salary (including expenses) is conditional.

A CEO (i.e. Federal Candidate) is required for the Federal Electoral Division of PARKES.

Job Specifications

The successful Applicant may be required to work a minimum of 70 hours per week when answering to the needs of approximately 150,000 people. This responsibility will demand:

- a) attention to the health care of all 150,000;
- b) attention to the ongoing education of a constant 20,000 (minimum), which will include early learning, primary, secondary, gap year cultural bonding, and higher learning with a definite emphasis on trades;
- c) ensuring the implementation of Australia's inaugural Gap Year Cultural Bonding education program.
- d) ensuring that road, rail and electronic means of communication are constantly maintained at the highest standard possible;
- e) providing the highest possible standard of aged care;
- f) ensuring the implementation of Australia's inaugural Internal Defence (including Home Security) program.
- g) the CEO (i.e. successful endorsed Candidate) to uphold the delivery of Natural Justice throughout the lives of everyone within the electorate of PARKES; and that delivery of justice must extend to housing, child care, small business, primary industry – and more.

Profile of the Applicant: All Applicants must be tertiary qualified with proven expertise in their specific fields. This particular qualification will need to be coupled with articulate and down-to-earth, disciplined oratory skills, along with the ability to command respect.

Applicants are invited to submit a brief CV by email to: The Secretary, Selection Committee, The Federal Party, selection@federals.org.au. (No attachments please.)

* The successful Applicant (CEO) will be paid a Parliamentary Salary package (including Parliamentary expenses) conditional upon the CEO winning the seat of Parkes at the upcoming federal election.